This correspondence is regarding the SAM'S CLUB credit card account referenced above.

You previously had conversations with us regarding the unauthorized opening or use of the SAM'S CLUB credit card account referenced above. Our investigation of that account has been completed.

The claim has been resolved in your favor. We have taken the following actions:

1. All charges have been removed.
2. The account has been removed from your credit report at the three major reporting agencies: Equifax, Experian and Trans Union.
3. You will not be held liable for the charges.
4. Please note that it usually takes four to six weeks for the credit reporting agencies to remove the account information.

As a victim of ID theft it is strongly advised that you take certain security measures:

File a report with a federal, state, or local law enforcement agency. Contact all nation wide Consumer Credit Reporting agencies and ask that they place "fraud alerts" in your file to let potential creditors and others know that you may be a victim of identity theft.
